Nicole Eubanks-Lambert, owner of the new Rainbow Station school in Wyndham, and Mary Beth and John Greco, owners of the Foot Solutions of Glen Allen, recently were honored by the International Franchise Association as Franchisees of the Year. The awards are given to International Franchise Association (IFA)-member companies to honor outstanding performance and contributions to the growth and development of the nation's franchising industry.

Rainbow Station franchise owner Gail Johnson nominated Eubanks-Lambert for her perseverance in the face of numerous obstacles during the construction of the school. Eubanks-Lambert was recognized on Sept. 10 during the IFA's annual Franchise Appreciation Day in Washington, D.C.

"Having our franchisees. . . awarded the Franchisee of the Year Award by IFA is a great honor for Foot Solutions, Inc." said Ray Margiano, Founder & CEO of Foot Solutions, Inc. "This award represents leadership, sharing and success, and we are proud."

The IFA's membership includes nearly 10,000 franchisees and 1,300 franchise companies. It promotes franchising worldwide.
